St. Lawrence-Lewis BOCES (which is located in Canton, NY) is looking to fill the position of Director of Labor Relations. Duties include: representing component school districts in all labor relations matters including contract negotiation and administration, grievance processing and improper practice proceedings.

Minimum Qualifications: Bachelors degree with 3 years experience in collective bargaining, mediation, and grievance arbitration. NYS Administrative Certification with experience in contract negotiations or license to practice law in NYS preferred.

This position requires some travel and evening meetings. Potential salary is up to $125,000 commensurate with education and experience. Applications can be found at www.sllboces.org and will be accepted until the position is filled. E.O.E.